Camping in land vested in our under control of the Council

2.

No person shall camp on any land vesting in and/or under the control of the Council except on a camping site within the boundaries of a camping area, and then only subject to the provisions of this by-law.

3.

The right of admission to a camping area or any part thereof is reserved and the caretaker may refuse such admission to any person.

4.

No person shall camp on any land within a camping area without being in possession of a valid camping permit.

5.

Any person making use of a camping area or any amenity therein for whatever purpose shall do so at his own risk and the Council shall, in the absence of proof of negligence on its part or any of its employees, not accept responsibility for the death of such person or injury, damage or loss suffered by such a person in the process.

6.

No camping permit shall be issued unless the prospective camper—

- (1) duly completes the camping register and by means of his or her signature therein signifies as to the correctness of the information supplied, to submission by him or her and his or her camping party to the provisions of this by-law and all rules laid down in terms thereof as also to the reasonable instructions of the caretaker;
- (2) has paid the prescribed charges in respect of the full period during which the camping site will be occupied.

- (1) A camping permit shall be valid only for the period stated therein and must be kept and produced upon request by the superintendent. The caretaker may renew such permit or refuse the renewal thereof.
- (2) No person shall without the written consent of the Council camp in a camping area whether continuous or otherwise for a period exceeding three months in any period of twelve months. The Council may refuse such an application or grant it subject to such conditions and for such period as it may deem fit but not for any period in excess of a further three consecutive months;
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7(2), 10% of the total number of sites in any caravan park up to a maximum of 10 sites whichever may be the lesser may be set aside and occupied by caravans for any such longer period/s as the Council shall determine;
- (4) If permission is granted in terms of subsections (1), (2) or (3) a new camping permit shall be issued on payment of the normal prescribed charges in respect of the full period of further occupation.

The occupier of a camping site must be the person whose name appears on the camping permit and he or she may not sublet, cede, dispose of, or in any way alienate his rights thereunder.

9.

- (1) Reservation of camping sites shall only be considered upon receipt of a written application.
- (2) An amount equal to the full charges in respect of a site for the full period for which reservations is desired, shall be payable before such reservation is confirmed.
- (3) If written notice of cancellation of a reservation is received by the Council at least twenty-one days prior to the commencement of the reserved period, half the amount of the charge already paid by the holder of the camping permit, shall be refunded to him. Only under exceptional circumstances will the Council consider making a greater refund.

- (1) Notwithstanding any contract between the Council and any person, the caretaker may direct any camper and/or member of his or her camping party to leave the camping area if the caretaker has reasonable grounds to believe that such person has committed an offence whether in terms of this by-law or the provision of any other Act or if in the opinion of the caretaker he or she has conducted himself in such a manner that his or her presence in the camping area is undesirable or if he or she fails to comply with the reasonable requests or instructions of the caretaker.
- (2) In the circumstances set out in subsection (1) the campers' camping permit shall be withdrawn and no money shall be refunded in respect of any unexpired period already paid for.

When a camper's camping permit expires on account of efflux of time or withdrawal such a camper shall—

- (1) voluntarily and without delay vacate his or her camping site and leave it in a clean and tidy condition. He or she shall be responsible for the disposing of all rubbish and the filling of all holes and furrow made by him or her in the ground and should he or she fail to do so to the satisfaction of the caretaker the Council may have it done at his or her expense, and
- (2) remove from such camping site and the camping area all property belonging to him or her and members of his or her camping party. Any such property remaining in the camping area after the departure of the camper may be removed and kept in custody by the caretaker at the cost and risk of the camper and shall become the Council's property if not claimed and removed by the owner within one month of such removal.

Only one caravan with not more than two side tents forming part thereof, is permitted per camping site on those camping sites set aside within a camping area for the accommodation of caravans and mobile homes only. One tent only per camping site will be permitted on those camping sites set aside within a camping area for the accommodation of tents only.

13.

No camper shall make his or her camp or picnic on a camping site other than that assigned to him or her by the caretaker or refuse to obey the reasonable instructions of such officer or to comply with the caretaker's demands as to the manner of making such camp. The caretaker shall have absolute discretion in this regard as also with regard to the acceptability and sufficiency, or not, of any dwelling/ sleeping accommodation, fencing, shelters, temporary structures, erections and the number and type of vehicle/s to be permitted on camping site.

14.

any camper may be instructed by the caretaker at any time to move his or her camp to another camping site if the caretaker considers such moving to be desirable in the public interest or for the sake of the safety of person and/or property or for purposes of executing urgent Council works.

15.

No camper shall—

- (1) use any camping site for any purpose other than a camping holiday and he or she shall in particular not carry on any trade or business thereon;
